

Summer Camp 2014

AGROECOLOGY, SMALL-SCALE FARMING AND REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Department of Organic Food Quality and Food Culture, University of Kassel, Germany offers a summer camp in the Heide region (Natendorf, Uelzen) in Germany. This will be held from 26th of July to 2nd of August in 2014. Young scientists from any level are kindly invited to join the camp. Although international participants are highly welcomed, the camp will be held in German, thus requiring minimum level B1 of German language skills.

The camp addresses five thematic areas in five days:

1. Sustainable cities and villages: self-sufficient neighbourhoods
2. Land grabbing at village scale: messing up village livelihood
3. Land rent issue: no room for youngsters
4. Bio-diversity at small-scale farming
5. Farming ethics
